Comments

This 2016 Ford F-150 King Ranch combines premium capability with refined truck engineering. Finished in blue and powered by a 3.5L V6 twin-turbocharged engine with 4WD, this full-size pickup delivers the performance and luxury you expect from the King Ranch lineup. With 116,863 miles and a clean title, this truck has been well-maintained and is ready for its next owner. Twin panel moonroof. Adaptive cruise control and collision warning. Max trailer tow package with integrated trailer brake controller. FX4 off-road package with front and rear off-road tuned shocks. King Ranch chrome appearance package. Technology package with SYNC 3 and navigation system. Pro trailer backup assist. Class IV trailer hitch receiver. Android Auto and Apple CarPlay. Lane-keeping system with auto high beam. This King Ranch is fully loaded with the comfort and convenience features serious truck owners appreciate. The SYNC 3 infotainment system with navigation and voice commands integrates seamlessly with Android Auto and Apple CarPlay. Dual-zone climate control, heated and ventilated front seats, and multi-contour driver and passenger seats provide all-day comfort. The truck features power-deployable running boards, active park assist, and blind spot information to enhance daily usability. Off-road capability is backed by the FX4 package, which includes hill descent control and specially tuned suspension. This truck runs great and looks fantastic. Come see it in person and experience the commanding presence of this well-equipped F-150 King Ranch.
