The Frontier SV delivers practical performance with its V6 engine producing capable power for daily driving and hauling tasks. The truck achieves 18 city and 24 highway MPG, balancing efficiency with the capability you expect from a modern pickup. The 9-speed automatic transmission provides smooth power delivery across varied driving conditions, while rear-wheel drive keeps your purchase price accessible. Your comfort takes priority with the dual-zone front automatic climate control, allowing both driver and passenger independent temperature settings. The heated leather steering wheel and heated front seats prove particularly valuable during colder months. Power windows, doors, and mirrors come standard, along with easy-to-use smartphone integration through wireless connectivity. Safety and utility combine seamlessly in this truck. The tow package gives you the hardware needed for trailers, while the drop-in bed liner protects your cargo area from daily wear. Blind Spot Warning alerts you to vehicles in your blind zones, while Electronic Stability Control and traction control help maintain secure handling in challenging situations. The comprehensive airbag system, including side-impact and knee airbags, provides multiple layers of occupant protection. The Frontier SV represents practical truck ownership without unnecessary complexity. With low mileage and comprehensive features already on board, this vehicle is ready for immediate use. Visit our showroom to experience the capable design and comfortable interior that make daily driving and weekend projects alike more enjoyable.
