The high roof configuration maximizes your interior volume, allowing you to transport larger items and materials efficiently. With front wheel drive and a 3.6L V6 engine paired with a 9-speed automatic transmission, this van provides the balance of power and fuel efficiency for daily commercial use.Your connectivity needs are met with the Uconnect 5 system featuring a 7-inch display, along with Apple CarPlay and Android Auto integration. This keeps you accessible while maintaining focus on the road. SiriusXM radio keeps you entertained and informed during long routes, and steering wheel mounted audio controls let you manage your entertainment without taking your hands off the steering wheel.Safety and visibility are prioritized with the ParkView rear back-up camera, electronic stability control, and traction control. The front wheel independent suspension absorbs road imperfections, reducing driver fatigue on longer routes. Heavy duty suspension components are engineered to support the demands of a commercial work vehicle.Practical features like the cargo partition with sliding window give you flexibility in managing your workspace. The partition allows you to secure cargo while maintaining communication with the cab, a valuable feature for crews working on multiple projects. Remote keyless entry and illuminated entry make accessing your vehicle convenient at any hour.The 2024 Ram ProMaster 2500 High Roof stands ready to support your business operations with reliability, space, and features designed for professional use.
