This 2000 Toyota 4Runner SR5 represents a capable and well-equipped SUV ready to handle both daily driving and outdoor adventures. With its silver exterior and proven 3.4L V6 engine paired with a 4-speed automatic transmission, this vehicle delivers the reliability Toyota owners have come to expect. - 3.4L V6 engine with 4-speed automatic transmission- Power windows, locks, and mirrors- Remote keyless entry- Premium AM/FM stereo with cassette and CD player with 6 speakers- Air conditioning- Towing receiver hitch- Roof rack and cargo mat- Tonneau cover- Chrome running boards- Sport seat package with front bucket seats and split folding rear seat- 15" aluminum wheels- Power steering with speed-sensing capability- Dual front impact airbags and ABS brakes- Rear window defroster and wiperThe 4Runner has been designed to provide practical comfort for those who value both capability and convenience. The power accessories throughout the cabin—including windows, locks, and mirrors—make operation effortless during daily use. The sport seat package offers supportive seating for driver and passengers, while the split folding rear seat provides flexibility for cargo or passenger needs. Climate control is maintained through air conditioning and heated door mirrors for year-round comfort. For those requiring towing capability, this model includes a receiver hitch and is equipped to handle your needs. The roof rack and tonneau cover work together to expand your storage options while protecting cargo from the elements. Chrome accents, including running boards and bumpers, add style while the cargo mat protects the interior bed area. Safety and control are prioritized with dual front impact airbags, ABS brakes, and speed-sensing steering. The front and rear anti-roll bars contribute to stable handling on various road conditions. Independent front suspension and the proven Toyota drivetrain combine to create a vehicle that responds predictably whether you're navigating city streets or venturing off the beaten path. Entertainment and convenience features include a premium AM/FM stereo system with both cassette and CD capabilities, supported by six speakers for quality sound. The illuminated passenger visor vanity mirror and tilt steering wheel add to the practical luxury of daily operation. Power antenna and remote keyless entry round out the modern conveniences available in this vehicle. This 4Runner SR5 stands ready to serve as a dependable companion for work, family outings, or weekend escapes. We invite you to visit our showroom to examine this vehicle in person and discover why the 4Runner remains a respected choice for those seeking a combination of capability, comfort, and Toyota quality.
