The convertible hardtop provides the flexibility to enjoy open-air driving while offering the security and convenience of an automated roof system. The genuine wood trim throughout the cabin—on the dashboard, door panels, and console—creates an upscale environment that distinguishes this vehicle from competitors.Powering this luxury convertible is a refined 4.3L V8 engine that delivers responsive performance through a 6-speed automatic transmission. The combination achieves 18 city and 25 highway MPG, balancing the driving engagement you expect with reasonable fuel efficiency. This powertrain has been engineered for reliability, and the vehicle has recently undergone an oil change as part of our commitment to its continued operation.The interior accommodates two occupants with heated front bucket seats wrapped in leather, providing comfort during both warm and cool weather driving. Memory functions for the driver's seat and steering wheel allow you to save your preferred settings, while power-adjustable features ensure intuitive operation. The dual-zone automatic temperature control maintains individual comfort preferences for driver and passenger.The navigation system integrates seamlessly with the vehicle's technology package, which includes a Mark Levinson premium audio system featuring 9 speakers, AM/FM radio with RDS capability, and compatibility with cassette and CD media. Steering wheel-mounted audio controls keep essential functions within reach, while the HomeLink garage door transmitter adds practical convenience to your daily routine.This SC 430 has passed a complete dealer inspection and has been freshly detailed, presenting itself in ready-to-drive condition. The vehicle offers the combination of open-air enjoyment, premium materials, and proven Lexus engineering that appeals to those who value both performance and refinement.
